2. COMMUNICATION:

The International Bureau acknowledges receipt of your communication which contains Article 19 amendments as well as an accompanying letter.

The Article 19 amendments to the claims were timely received under Rule 16.1 and Form IB/346 has been issued.

Regarding the letter accompanying the amended claims, the applicant is advised but not obliged to split the document in two parts and file them separately.

The second page contains the necessary information regarding the basis of the amendments.

The first page contains references and comments regarding the documents cited in the International Search Report and the Written Opinion of the Searching Authority which should be rather be filed separately as "informal comments to the Written Opinion of the International Searching Authority".

Therefore you are kindly invited to confirm within ONE MONTH from the date of mailing of this notification that this page should be processed separately as "informal comments", in that case both pages should be resubmitted separately.
