

Box No. III Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 3 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

1. claims: 1-17

Machining head according to claim 1, characterized by the potential technical feature: an advancing device which is arranged or formed on or in the housing and which is designed to generate a pushing force that imparts a pushing movement along a push axis to a machining tool coupled to the housing. Problem solved: increasing the degrees of freedom of the machining tool. Machining head according to claim 1, characterized by the potential special technical feature: an additional coupling zone on the housing to couple the housing to a bearing device that supports the housing, the additional coupling zone on the housing comprising at least one additional coupling interface for supporting the housing on the bearing device. Problem solved: easy replacement of the machining head.

1.1. claims: 7-9, 13-17

1. As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying additional fees, this Authority did not invite payment of additional fees.
3. As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

- Remark on Protest
- The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest and, where applicable, the payment of a protest fee.
 - The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest but the applicable protest fee was not paid within the time limit specified in the invitation.
 - No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.
